

A photograph of a wedding couple standing in a stone archway. The groom is wearing a green jacket and a red and green kilt, and the bride is wearing a white dress with a long veil. They are holding hands and looking at each other. In the background, a large, multi-story stone castle with many windows is visible under a cloudy sky. The archway is made of rough-hewn stone blocks.

What our wedding couples say

*"We feel incredibly fortunate to have been married at Culzean Castle. Its beautiful, characterful setting made our day truly unforgettable. Although Culzean isn't a traditional wedding venue, Catriona and the team guided us through every step, helping us create a day that felt uniquely 'us'. Our guests were full of praise for the venue and staff. Being able to use different locations around the grounds—hopping between them by golf buggy—made our photos extra special. We couldn't have been happier with our day." Emily & Andrew

"A big thank you to all the Culzean Castle staff—everyone was so kind and helpful, and we're incredibly grateful. A special thank you to Catriona, who took care of everything so we could relax and enjoy our day. She accommodated every request, adapted to weather changes, adjusted timings, and all our guests commented on how wonderful she was. Thank you for making our fairytale wedding possible. We'll be recommending Culzean to all our friends."
