Congratulations on your engagement and thank you for considering Drum Castle as the venue for your special day.

Located near Peterculter, 30 minutes' drive from Aberdeen city centre, Drum Castle is one of Scotland's oldest tower houses. It boasts a romantic library, an exquisite chapel nestled in the grounds and a beautiful rose garden.

This venue can host intimate weddings for up to 45 guests, and there is also a self-catering apartment that can sleep 2. For larger weddings, a marquee can be erected in the grounds.

Your dream wedding

Drum Castle offers many possibilities for your wedding. Our team will be there to guide and support you, to help you create a bespoke day filled with personal touches and special moments.

What our wedding couples say

"Highly recommend for your special day! We got married in the Chapel at Drum Castle in May 2023. It was the most stunning venue! The Chapel was lovely and quaint and the grounds were gorgeous. David the wedding planner was extremely helpful from day one and leading right up to the wedding. Everything went smoothly and David couldn't have helped enough with that."
