Thank you so much for your interest in supporting the future work of the National Trust for Scotland with a gift in your Will.

We'd be very grateful if you would complete this editable form to let us know about your intentions. This will help us to better plan for the future and we'll be able to thank you, keep you updated about our conservation work across Scotland and invite you to future events.

We understand that circumstances and wishes may change over time – this form is in no way binding.
