17 July 2018

Circus rolls up to Burns

Circus Sensible will be setting up their big top tent at the National Trust for Scotland's Robert Burns Birthplace and Museum this July.

On Saturday 28 July, Circus Sensible's Big Top Day comes to Robert Burns Birthplace and Museum with three circus performances at 11am, 1pm and 3pm.

Circus Sensible will perform their fun filled circus comedy show in a traditional big top tent. The shows are aimed at small kids and big kids alike and promise to be jam-packed with lots of hilarity and audience participation.

Outside the big top, there will be the opportunity for budding circus performers to try their hand at various circus skills by joining the drop in circus skills workshops which will run throughout the day. Circus skills on offer include juggling, plate spinning, stilt walking, diablo and Chinese ribbon.

Claire Grant, Events Manager, Robert Burns Birthplace and Museum, said, "We're delighted to welcome Circus Sensible and host their Big Top Day. The circus shows promise to have the crowds in stitches and it will be interesting to see if anyone can master all the circus skills!"

Advance booking is recommended.
