

NATIONAL TRUST FOR SCOTLAND MEDIA RELEASE

6 April 2018

Go daft over daffodils with the National Trust for Scotland at Green Bank Garden

The National Trust for Scotland is getting ready to celebrate spring with their Daffodil Days event at Greenbank Garden.

The event will take place on Saturday 14th and Sunday 15th April from 11am-4pm.

Come and celebrate spring at Greenbank Garden which is home to over 50 varieties of daffodils. There will be spring-themed arts and crafts to keep children entertained, you can grab a spot of lunch in the café or enjoy a picnic on the lawns.

Emma Sweeney, Acting Property Manager Greenbank Garden said: "After such a long winter, we are getting ready to celebrate all things spring like by showcasing the bold splashes of colour our daffodils provide to our beautiful garden."

The Greenbank daffodils recently featured at the Spring show at the Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh alongside other National trust for Scotland gardens, Brodie and Threave.

For more information about the Daffodil Days event and Greenbank Garden visit www.nts.org.uk.

- ENDS -

