

NATIONAL TRUST FOR SCOTLAND MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: MONDAY 30 AUGUST 2021

Classic car fans flock to Newhailes to close summer of fun events

The National Trust for Scotland recently played host to a Classic Car and Transport Show – the first of its kind at Newhailes House & Gardens in Musselburgh!

Families and fans of classic cars flocked to the historic house and gardens to admire gleaming automobiles on Sunday 29 August. This is the latest stellar event hosted at Newhailes – from the adorable Doghailes, celebrating our best furry friends, and a concert by the Scottish Fiddle Orchestra.

Claire Grant, Operations Manager Edinburgh, for the National Trust for Scotland, said:

“We love Newhailes – it's a special place for our community. We've been delighted to showcase the house and gardens by holding exciting events through the summer. From crowning the best dog lookalike, to poignant fiddle music, to the gorgeous vehicles on display at our latest event – Newhailes has played host to diverse events and audiences. We love welcoming visitors to Newhailes – look out for future fun family events!”

Newhailes House & Gardens is a stunning place which played a prominent role in the Scottish Enlightenment. The estate is complete with a Palladian mansion, woodland walks and the recently renovated Stables Café, as well as Weehailes Adventure Playpark. Newhailes has something for all the family to enjoy.
